AFRIDIS TRIBES INSURGENT.

NO CONFIRMATION OF THE REPORTED MASSACRE.

The Khyber Rifles Desert---The Cutting Off of Advance Force of Natives.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SIMLA, Aug. 25.—It was officially announced today that Fort Ali-Musjid, at the Khyber Pass, had been evacuated after eleven of the garrison, composed of the Khyber Rifles had deserted.

No news has been received regarding the remainder of the garrison and nothing is known of their fate or whereabouts. There is no confirmation of the report that Afridis had massacred three hundred of this force and then attacked the British in force and burned fort Ali-Musjid.

It is reported, however that a force of 4000 Afridis has advanced to Lukarai, twelve miles from Fort Bara which is in a southeasterly direction from Jamrud. Fort Ali-Musjid was an important point and its fall is likely to encourage the insurgents to more extensive operations.

General Ellis will attempt to cut off the retreat of the insurgent advance forces and it is reported today that they are already short of food.

At today's New York price for fars, the value of the silver in the standard dollar is 39.66 cents.

CONVENTION A BIG SUCCESS.

The Twin-City Full of State Sunday School Workers.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

WINSTON, Aug. 25.—The opening exercises of the State Sunday School Convention, at Centenary church last night, drew a large crowd.

The addresses of welcome were delvered by Dr. W. S. Creasy, pastor of Centenary church, Winston, and Bishop Edward Rondthaler, pastor of the Moravian Home church, Salem, and Mr. Broughton, superintendent of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School, Raleigh, responded to these addresses.

After the appointment of the various committees, Dr. John C. Kilgo, of Trinity College, responded to the following query:

"What can the Colleges of North Carolina do for the Sunday Schools?"

The Doctor has the power to interest and convince when he talks, and he used this power last night with good effect. He took the position that the colleges of the State could return boys to their parents as pure and as good as they received them, and not send them back filled with the spirit of scorn and infidelity. He paid his regards to football and other brutal college amusements.

In the course of his remarks he declared that he longed to see the day when the church of God would go down into the political hustings and help solve the questions of the day.

Dr. Kilgo spoke for nearly an hour, and the tenor of discourse was clearly in favor of denominational schools from first to last.

The Twin-City is full of delegates from all parts of the State, and the convention is a big success.

RE-ORGANIZATION COMMENCES.

Miners' Leaders Get to Work Again When the Conference Failed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WHEELING W. Va., Aug. 25.—West Virginia organizers, upon learning of the failure of the Pittsburg conference, started again today the work of organizing a movement in this State.

A camp will be established at Fairmont and in the Ranawha and New River valleys. Marchers will avoid going near the mines in bodies.

Burned in Her Own Home.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Ed. Tabin, aged 32 years, of 215 West 17th street, suicided at 8:15 this morning by cutting his throat. No cause for the deed is known.

True Bill for Burglary.

The grand jury this morning returned a true bill for burglary against Will Patton. It will be remembered that Patton is the colored youth who three weeks ago broke into the house of a colored woman here in Greensboro.

We print today notice of the opening of the city schools. Remember that they open Wednesday, September 1st, and not the first Monday.

SHIPS COME IN FROM OPHIR.

STEAMER PORTLAND ARRIVES FROM THE LAND OF GOLD.

Miners Cheered as They Walked Down the Gang Plank--Claims Sold for $35,000.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

SEATTLE, Aug. 25.—Amid the wildest excitement the steamer Portland, direct from the land of gold, reached the dock here this morning. The shore was lined with an excited crowd, anxious to hear the latest from the fields of Klondyke.

There were many miners aboard and when they walked down the gang plank they were loudly cheered. They no sooner touched the ground than they were surrounded by crowds of eager enquirers.

Some of the miners returned with modest fortunes, some with immense wealth. Some sold their claims for from one to thirty thousand dollars.

It is estimated that the Portland brought more gold than any other vessel between here and the Klondyke.

POWER HOUSE BURNED.

Supposed to be the Work of an Incendiary---All Quiet.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 25.—The power house of the Federal Coal Company, at Federal, was burned this morning. The Tipple was also damaged to some extent. It is supposed to have been the work of incendiaries, as several men were seen running away when the fire was discovered.

All is quiet in the De Armitt district today; but little change is reported in the number of men at work.

A posse is still hunting Tom Cash who murdered John Kelley and he is expected to be caught today.

DOING A BIG BUSINESS.

The Mt. Airy Granite Company Has a Big Contract.

This company now has a big force of hands at work getting out and cutting granite for a fourteen-story building in Philadelphia. Forty-two stonecutters are at work at Mt. Airy, while thirty-eight are employed at Winston by C. A. McGalliard, who has charge of a part of their work. Nearly all the laborers employed at Winston are foreigners, while those employed at Mt. Airy are natives.

This is one of the biggest contracts the Mt. Airy Granite Company has ever had. Messrs. Thomas Woodroffe, Percy Gray, and Peter Gray, who has charge of the stone work of the Philadelphia building, are now at the quarries looking after the work.

A Matter of Vital Importance.

I feel it my duty to inform the people of Greensboro that there are two cases of tuberuulosis (consumption) in cows in the city, and from one of these the family of the owner, not knowing the danger, has been using the milk until recently, I condemed her and there being no way to have her killed or to compensate the owner she was sold.

I recently learned that one man said he had killed and sold hundreds of cows in the same condition for beef.

Can't some provision be made whereby such food shall be condemned? Human health and life are at stake.

The latest scientific investigations show that there is little or no tuberculer diseases of mankind where there are no tuberculer foods eaten.

Yours truly,
J. W. PETTY, D. V. S.

Will Open Again.

We learn that the firm of Hodgin, Pegram & Co., who were burned out in one of our recent fires, will re-open about September 15th, under the firm name of S. G. Hodgin & Co. This firm is composed of clever gentlemen and we are glad to know that they will resume business.

They will occupy a store in the new Huffines building in the burnt district, just south of the railroad, on South Elm street. They have our best wishes.

Two Big Cases.

Two cases of assault and battery have demanded the attention of the court today. Fifty people—men, women and children—were brought in from Proximity mills as witnesses and defendants.

A FULL ATTENDANCE.

Delegate Coming to the Convention Who Has a Wife and 11 Children.

The entertainment committee of the Sundayschool convention received a letter a day or two ago from a Sunday School worker, telling him how many and what kind of delegates would be sent from his section, and asked that the committee arrange suitable homes for each of them.

One is described as a good Methodist superintendent 70 years old, another a young superintendent who is a farmer and a devout man, and one is a faithful Baptist man with a wife and eleven children.

The writer does not say whether the Baptist brother will bring the children along or not, but some of our people are inclined to dodge this brother, for fear the family will be along.—Winston Journal.

Richardson on Trial.

Luke Richardson was arraigned in court this afternoon at 3:45. Not being able to employ counsel, Judge Adams appointed a colored lawyer by the name of Fitts, of Winston, to defend him.

Solicitor Bynum read the bill of indictment, after which the young lady upon whom the assault was committed went on the stand. Our people are familiar with the circumstances connected with the case, so it is unnecessary to give her evidence. She was being cross-examined by Fitts when we went to press.

Will Move to Charlottsville.

Pleasants Bros., brick masons and contractors, have decided to leave Greensboro and locate in Charlottsville, Va., where they will go into the hardware business. They expect to leave Greensboro about September Ist.

They are clever, hard-working young men and have our best wishes for success in their new venture.

Vanstory's New Front.

Workmen commenced today on C. M. Vanstory & Co's new front. It will take some time to finish the job, but when completed it will be a beauty.

To the Morganton Asylum.

Sheriff Kapp, of Forsyth county, came down from Winston this morning with a demented lady whom he was carrying to the Asylum at Morganton.

SIGNIFICANT.

The Democratic press of the State and South has been charging, both before and since the Republican inroad into the "Solid South," that Republican party of this section is a party of spoils; the assertion has been made that its coherent principle is the hope of place; that it was only the possibility of reward through national victory that kept the Republicans of the South from disintegrating, which, of course would mean, if true, that it is dominated by selfishness, pure and simple, and the worst type of selfishness—that which assumes the form of sordid grasping after public positions for the loaves and fishes only.

This has been open to the question, always, whether or not it was merely political talk, the cheapest of all kind of talk admittedly. So long as the Democratic press alone made this charge it was the privilege of the accused to make this answer; the citizen and voter must draw his own conclusions, from the facts presented, as to whether the charge was true or the answer satisfactory.

But today there is another and totally different party to the charge; this time it comes, not from a Democratic source, but from the Republican administration. No one can insinuate that Mr. McKinley has cause for enmity towards Southern Republicans, for they stood by him loyally at St. Louis. And yet it has leaked out, and goes undenied, that both he and the heads of bureaus are thoroughly wearied, not to say disgusted, with the representatives of the party in the South. He has found it impossible either to ignore the factions or to satisfy their leaders. In the scramble for office, they have fought one another with a bitterness never shown in a contest with Democrats.

So soon as a man has been recommended for a place, political enemies in his own party, have promptly filed charges against him, and investigation has usually substantiated them. This result, of course, cannot be kept from the press and shows to the country, at one and the same time, the character of the leaders and the state of the party in the South. It shows the party rent by internal dissensions and divided into factions whose sole aim is getting as much Federal patronage as possible. To such an extent has this been carried that Northern Repnblicans no longer try to conceal their disgust and chagrin at the conduct of their Southern allies. They say that Southern Republicans show utter indifference to the future welfare of the party; that they are destroying, finally, whatever chances it may have had of obtaining any permanent control in the South. They go even further and add that Southern Republicans should show a little less ravenous hunger for a feast they did not help to spread. that Northern Republicans win the victory and party leaders in the South should be content to divide the spoils in peace.

It cannot be justly said that Northern Republicans have ever been squeamish about taking the fruits of the fight; there must be some foundation for this indictment of Republicans in the South.

Is this then the wonderful "new Republicanism" that was to open up for us a splendid era of growth and good government hereabouts? How will it meet this charge of its own faith and order? If it is careless of the welfare of the party whose hand bestows the bounty will it be careful of the welfare of the people? If Southern Republicans have no hesitancy in airing their own dishonor we need not expect them to be over careful of the honor of other people. New Republicanism by any other name would smell as sweet—and no sweeter.

Accused by the Democrats of this section, it has been convicted by its own tribunal. It might have brushed aside the charges of the opposite party; this charge it can neither palliate nor deny.

The citizen and voter need not consider Democratic estimates; Southern Republicanism is pilloried in disgrace by the hands of its friends.

GOVERNOR MCLAURIN, of Mississippi, in deciding to appoint his own brother United States Senator must have taken our chief executive as his political exemplar. Whether Democrat or Republican, a little judicious searching will generally reveal enough talent outside of the Governor's family to select from, when places of honor and trust are to be filled. McLaurin might find some more tasteful method of showing his brotherly affection.

NEW YORK authorities need not feel exercised about the disposition of cab horses when the horseless carriage takes their place. David B. Hill and Grover Cleveland don't take up all the room on the shelf.

THE downward course of John L. Sullivan should be a pertinent warning; prize-fighter, actor, baseball umpire, candidate for mayor of Boston. What a text to hitch a moral to!

THE French people having made fools of themselves over the Czar the Russian populace now has a chance to return Faure the dubious compliment.

GREENSBORO AS A WHOLESALER

Rapidly Becoming a Competitor of Baltimore and Richmond.

Robert I. Lassiter, a merchant of Spilona, Johnston county, and one of Eastern Carolina's most substantial citizens, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Lassiter came here to buy his fall goods and bought them. He said that he could buy as advantageously here as in Richmond or Baltimore; that Greensboro was just as good a market for the retailer,

Here is a pointer for the retail merchant. Why go to northern cities to buy when purchases can be made as profitably nearer home and the expenses of a trip to a distant market and heavy freight rates can be saved by buying in Greensboro?

One thing that southern merchants need to learn, is that it is mutually beneficial to trade with southern merchants. So soon as this policy is adopted the effect will be visible in commercial conditions here. So long as all the South's money goes to northern wholesalers so long will money be close in the South. The old order is being changed—it must be changed still further. Let our retailers wake up to the situation.

SUPERINTENDENT'S CIRCULAR.

How Shall we Increase the Attendance on Our Public Schools?

"How shall we improve the attendance upon our public schools? I come to you with this important question and ask you to give it careful consideration. This is a question that should interest all friends of popular education. The first remedy I suggest is, have better schools. Secure better teachers. Let our teachers go out among indifferent parents and strive to show them what they can and will do for their children when their children come. Our parents ought not to be such strangers to our schools and especially to our teachers. The cry was made during the late compaign for local taxation that our children do not attend what schools we now have; why spend any more money when what we now have is not used and appreciated by those who need it most. I am in favor of better schools, better teachers, more earnest, honest effort to make them worthy to be attended by our children, and then if, after we have good schools, people will not send their children, I shall be in favor of compulsory education.

MAKING ANOTHER EFFORT.

Our Junior Baseball Team Wants to Play Reidsville.

Correspondence is now on between the junior baseball team of this city and the juniors of Reidsville. Our boys want to arrange a series of six games with Reidsville—three to be played in Greensboro and three in Reidsville.

These two teams had a series of games arranged for earlier in the season, but only two of the games were played.

The juniors say they are "up to snuff" and can win five straight games from Reidsville—if they are played fairly and squarely.

Raleigh's New Paper.

Raleigh is to have a new afternoon paper to be known as The Times. E. A. Womble, who was formerly editor of the Raleigh Daily Press, will be the managing editor, and Chas. F. Cook will be city editor. It will begin publication as soon as the material arrives and the office made ready for the work.

A Pretty Front.

The new front of the Greensboro Hardware Company is a thing of beauty. It will be remembered that when the plate glass for the front arrived last week the two largest pieces were broken and new glass had to be ordered. It arrived yesterday and has been put in, and the store will now present a very pleasing appearance.

New Council in Charlotte.

Zebulon B. Vance Council, No. 42, Jr. O. U. A. M., was instituted at Charlotte Monday night by D. S. C., S. W. Muse. This is the second council of this order for Charlotte. It has sixteen charter members.

The Public Invited.

The pastor of Grace M. P. church requests us to state that all are invited to hear the address of Rev. W. R. Lowdermilk, of High Point, to the young people of Grace church this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The gold fever has seized some of the members of the revenue marine service. Three of the crew of the cutter Perry have deserted and started for the gold fields.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

The Woman's Exchange of Raleigh will have a barbecue tomorrow.

The Board of Barium Springs Orphanage elected a new treasurer yesterday.

The Southern will use 90-pound rail on its Charlotte and Mooresville line of road.

Yadkin river is soon to have a steamboat. It will be for private use and excursion purposes.

The fall term of Wake Forest College begins today. A large increase in attendance is expected.

Six hundred railroad men are in attendance at the annual railroad men's picnic today at Waynesville.

A hail storm did considerable damage in Rowan county Monday. Lightning struck the residence of Dr. Chenaux at Cleveland.

Revenue Collector Gibson, in a raid in Randolph county, got a 50 gallon still, destroyed 700 gallons of beer and pulled two moonshine heelers.

The trial of the young men who pounded Rev. "Holiness" Jones came to nothing. All were discharged but one and he was given straw bond for his appearance.

Dr. Cobb, State Librarian, is arranging to get the newspaper file room of the library in good shape. The arrangement has been faulty and the bound volumes hard to get at.

The following railroads settled with the State Treasurer yesterday: A. & N. C. railroad, $1,378.58; Raleigh & Augusta, $3,151.74; C. & N. W., $490.91; Pittsboro, $62.80; Palmetto, $452.06.

James J. Britt, who was recently elected adjunct professor of mathmatics at the Agricultural and Mechanical college, declines, having been appointed deputy collector by Revenue Collector Harkins.

Next week there will be no issue of Senator Butler's paper, the Caucasian, as its office will be moved to that of Barnes Bros., who will hereafter print the paper. It is the plan to largely increase the circulation.

A Heinous Crime.

Today about 2 o'clock a warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Charles A. Cook for the arrest of Albert Colbet, colored, charged with committing a nameless crime upon the 14-year-old daughter of Frances Phifer, who lives on Mr. Frank Pharr's plantation, several miles from the city. Deputy Cook found his man near the old Presbyterian church. Upon seeing the officer Colbet ran into an old house near by when Mr. Cook called to Fred Swink, who happened to be near to assist in arresting the negro.

Officer Cook and Mr. Swink had some trouble in taking him, but after considerable tusseling, they succeeded in bringing him to Esquire Pitts' office, where he was tried and convicted for an assault upon Mr. Swink, and sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

The witnesses will be brought to town and tomorrow morning in Esquire Pitts' office Colbert will have a hearing for the grave charge for which he was arrested.

Colbert is a bad negro, having been released from the chain gang a short time ago,—Concord Standard.

THAT "OLD IRISHMAN" CONTINUES TO HIT HARD BLOWS.

The Evangelist Will Assist in the Bill Fife Meetings--High Point Notes of Interest.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 25, '97.

Mr. Lee still scatters it broadside twice a day at the warehouse. He said yesterday morning that he had discovered two other whiskey joints in the town and that the old Irshman didn't have any more sense than to tell just where they are. His sermon last night was on "Forgiveness." He will bring his currycomb to church tonight and no one need hope to escape. Mr. Lee expects to run over a couple of days and lend Bill Fife a helping hand.

The excursion from Asheboro to Wilmington received an additional car here this morning. Among those who boarded for Wilmington were D. Payne, V. V. Hedgepeth, Og. Bodenhamer, Cicero Tomlinson, Tom Riddick, Herb. Tomlinson, Harry Reith, Buck Johnson, the man who advertised for a wife and others.

The High Point Citizen makes its first appearance this afternoon. It is a very readable sheet, carefully gotten up. It is worth while to remember that you can get this excellent weekly paper a year, free of charge, by paying $3 for a year's subscription to THE GREENSBORO EVENING TELEGRAM.

Prof. J. M. Weatherly has been elected superintendent of Schools at Uvalde, Tex. The schools will probably begin this week. Prof. Weatherly has been living in High Point for several years. His family will remain here until spring.

Mrs. A. T. Owen is expected to return home this afternoon from Lenoir, where she has been attending the bedside of her mother, who has been quite sick, but considerably better now.

Mrs. Solomon Payne; who lives near High Point, is very sick and thought to be at the point of death. Her friends hope and pray that she will recover.

Some one stole one of Mr. Lee's lamps yesterday afternoon. The thief was chased by the officers but escaped. The lamp was recovered.

Mrs. Pepper, who has been visiting in Greensboro, passed through yesterday returning home to Trinity.

J. Sydney Spencer arrived yesterday, after a visit of several weeks near Salisbury.

Miss Rosa Moffit passed through yesterday en route to her home at Lexington from Guilford College.

Prof. Dave Blair, of the Winston graded school faculty, is visiting his people near here.

W. C. Troy, of Fayetteville, was in town last night.

G. S. Bradshaw was in High Point this morning.

Ed. Wharton, of Greensboro, was here yesterday.

Dr. J. W. Long left yesterday to spend a week at Balfour, N. C.

Capt. Rankin has charge of the excursion from Asheboro to Wilmington today.

Miss Laura Woollen returned to her home in Randleman this morning.

A Midnight Runaway.

A gentleman at Clegg's last night heard a mighty rumbling of wheels and clattering of hoofs between 11 and 12 o'clock. When he got up and looked out he saw a pair of mules hitched to a wagon going up South Elm street at break-neck speed. The wagon was loaded with chickens, watermelons and cantaloupes, and as the team ran the load was scattered right and left. No one was following the runaway, and it is not known to whom the team belonged.

An Important Witness.

Another important witness has been secured for the State against Luke Richardson for attempted rape. Yesterday Solicitor Bynum learned that Maude Wilson, the colored woman who saw Luke running from the scene of the crime with a hat in his hand, was in the city from Winston, where she went to make her home soon after the arrest and imprisonment of Luke.

Mr. Bynum immediately had Clerk Ragan to issue a subpœna for her, and thus another strong witness against Luke has been secured.

Will Run Two More.

James H. West returned this morning from Washington City, where he made arrangements with Colonel Turk, of the Southern railroad, to run two more excursions this season. They will be run from Greensboro to Asheville and Norfolk some time in September.

A TALENTED YOUNG MAN.

A Good Example of What Pluck and Brains Can Do.

Rev. R. W. Weaver, now at the Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., was in THE TELEGRAM office this morning. If we were to search the state over we know not where we should find a better example of what the young North Carolinian, with pluck and brains, can do.

Mr. Weaver began in a printing office in this city. From the printing office he went to Wake Forest College, taking his A. M. degree in three and a half years, something no other young man has done in the history of the institution, so far as we know.

After leaving college he came here as a teacher in our city schools and accepted at the same time the pastorate of the Baptist church at High Point. How well and ably he filled the places the people of the two towns know already.

Last September he entered the Theological Seminary at Louisville and took an enviable stand in his classes from the first.

Although a first year man he was chosen one of the editors of the Seminary magazine for this year; the probabilities are he will be made editor in chief by the staff. While at college he was chosen an editor of his college paper and represented his society in the anniversary debate.

Mr. Weaver has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church near Frankfort, Ky., of which the learned and saintly Dr. Broadus was pastor for a number of years. He has also been called upon to fill some of the best pulpits in Louisville as a supply, both in and out of his own denomination.
